FLIGHTCASE CDJ-1 XT - UK-FLAG

The Zomo Flightcase CDJ-1 is an universal case and the ideal solution, to transport several CD-Players or a 12” Mixer, protect them against dust, damage or unauthorized access. To enable that, there are some pads included in delivery, with which you can adjust your individual equipment in a secure and clean way. On the front you can find a panel for the Slot-In of the CD-Player and the handling of the mixer. The Flightcase CDJ-1 also convinces in optics with modern design! The solid construction stands for high qualitiy equipment. You can also use the 2 security locks, to defend your case against unauthorized access! The optimal utilization of possibilities is given in connection with the laptop stand LS-1 by Zomo. Like this, you can work on two areas and place the laptop stand direcly above the Flightcase CDJ-1.
