VINTAGE SERIES STRAT/TELE CASE, SURF GREEN

Built in Fender's Ensenada factory, these are a faithful recreation of the cases that have been shipping with our vintage instruments since the early 1950's. This limited edition case comes in a visually stunning Surf Green exterior with black plush interior. Made by hand with high quality materials, these cases will protect your investment with old school construction techniques and style. Featuring vegan leather end caps and a plastic handle for added protection and ease of portability. A cleverly engineered, spacious center pocket storage compartment to house all your accessories, while a padded plush interior lining keeps your guitar scratch and damage-free.

This stylish take on a road-reliable necessity is sure to protect your investment and draw compliments for years to come.
