D'ANDREA VINTAGE REISSUE STRAP - CROSSROADS

During the Rock-and-Roll glory days of the '60's and '70s, Ace Guitar Straps were worn by many iconic artists of the time including Jimi Hendrix, Bob Dylan, John Lennon, Eric Clapton and Elvis Presley. The design team at D'Andrea USA has gone to great lengths to replicate the Ace Strap designs seen in many historical photographs of the period. This vintage line of straps is based on the legends that wore them back in the 60's and 70's, each strap is 2.0" wide, equipped with real leather ends and a comfortable stitched vinyl layer on the inside of the strap. Unlike many straps made today, these straps feature a metal adjustment buckle. These straps truly bring back the classic vibe!
