FLIGHTCASE T-10 NSE

0030103291

With the T-10 NSE from Zomo you get a high quality flight case for the Technics SL-1210 MK7. The T-10 NSE in the appealing NSE edition impresses with its black look. This flightcase was developed to survive the rough DJ use without any problems and convinces with an extremely stable quality. The extra strong, black lacquered aluminium profiles and very solid ball corners guarantee an absolutely high durability and provide noble and beautiful design accents. The practical inner padding of the T-10 NSE ensures optimal protection of the Technics DJ turntable against damage. Abrasion and cigarette burns cannot harm the T-10 NSE, thanks to the solid, laminated 9mm plywood. Made for the rough DJ everyday life, the Zomo Flightcases are unrestricted tour-suitable and protect your valuable DJ equipment from damage, wetness or falls. The Technics Equipment Case in the night black NSE Edition not only offers strong, professional quality, but also inspires with a modern look - without question an eye-catcher! The helpful butterfly snap locks ensure an extraordinarily stable fit of the cover and easy unlocking and locking. All NSE flightcases can also be locked with an optional lock for stronger protection.
