FAS405 SMALL BODY ACOUSTIC GIG BAG, BLACK

Fender's F405 Series small body acoustic gig bag is a stylish and affordable way to keep your acoustic guitar safe while traveling. Its durable outer layer is constructed of tough 600 Denier polyester that protects against impacts and also avoids ripping and tearing. Its interior is filled with 5mm padding lined with soft nylon that keeps your instrument snug and secure while preventing potential finish damage. This gig bag also comes with a comfortable two-piece handle and ergonomic backpack straps, so you can comfortably carry your instrument without any unnecessary physical strain. Plus, the front slip pocket offers additional storage for small accessories.
